OFFICE OF THE MUNICIPAL MAYOR

MESSAGE

The Local Government Unit of Pinamalayan under our leadership, remains focus, steady and firm to our sworn commitment to Pinamaleños. We have utilized our funds and resources in achieving our noble commitment to people. Programs, projects and activities are well aligned and attuned to the demands of the public. We have remained committed to our mission of reaching out to the most vulnerable members of society. As a result, we must level up, improve, and modify all of our initial activities in order to satisfy the unique requirements of our people while also adapting to the demands of a changing world.

My fellow Pinamaleños, it is with great pride and honor to present and dedicate this compilation of Thematic Plans and Programs 2024, a navigational plan towards the Local Government's developmental framework and program intervention for the Fiscal Year 2024.

This plan of action reflects our expectations for conquering challenges and moving forward. It contains the programs/projects/activities streamlined for the coming year from a long master list of projects generated through sectoral consultation. Furthermore, with the unwavering support and active participation of all stakeholders, we can vouch that no sector is being left behind and guarantee the inclusivity of all programs.

Also, our heartfelt gratitude goes to the dedicated men and women of these municipality who place their best efforts to come up with this plan.

Hail Pinamalayan and all its people- ang Bayan ng Bahaghari, Bayang Pinagpala. Pilipinas, Pinamalayan Naman!

HON. ARISTEO APASAN BALDOS, JR.

OFFICE OF THE MUNICIPAL VICE MAYOR

MESSAGE

HON. RODOLFO M. MAGSINO
MUNICIPAL VICE MAYOR

Warmest greeting!

Success is no accident. It takes a lot of hard work, perseverance, learning, studying, sacrifice, and most of all, love of what you are doing or learning to do.

The municipality of Pinamalayan aims to become a sustainable place to live for every Pinamaleños. Planning and implementation are the best tool in making success. Thematic planning is an important activity of the Local Government Unit with the objective of building a more progressive municipality.

In this activity, the Local Chief Executive together with the Vice Mayor, Sangguniang Bayan Members, Department Heads, Chief of offices, and the representatives from different sectors joined together in a group discussion and identifying different programs, projects and activities that we believe needed to be implemented and can make an impact in the society.

Through inquiries, careful studies, researches and workshops, we will be able to sustain and meet the demands of the ever-changing time. Long term solutions, programs, projects and activities to be implemented are relevant and beneficial to the people. We cannot stop the passing time, but we have the power to define it.

With our collaborative efforts we can make Pinamalayan a sustainable place to live in. Let us work together and win as one. With the help of the Almighty, hand in hand, we can achieve what we are dreaming for our beloved Pinamalayan.

"Today's progress was yesterday's plan" - Anonymous

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the spirit of unity towards progress, deepest appreciation is hereby conveyed to the various stakeholders and institutions in our municipality such as the National Government Agencies, Barangay Government Units, Private Sector, Civil Society/Non-Governmental Organizations, the Legislative Department and the Executive Department of the Municipal Government of Pinamalayan for the unqualified support and participation in the preparation of POVERTY REDUCTION ACTION PLAN (PRAP) 2024 which was completed and packaged by the:

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

The name of the town was said to be taken from the word “ipinamalay” which means to make aware or to show the way. According to an old story, early settlers of this town came from a group of adventurous transmigrants who encountered turbulent weather in the sea. They prayed to God Almighty for deliverance and guidance, whereupon, the weather cleared and a rainbow appeared on the horizon. The crew shouted “ipinamalay na” which means it was made known. They followed the direction of the rainbow believing that at its end lies a pot of gold and good fortune. They finally landed at what is now barangay Lumambayan and established the first settlement which they named Pinamalayan. They found good fortune in the new land which brought them prosperity because of the good soil and abundant resources.

LEGEND

On the other hand, some sources state that the name Pinamalayan came from the word “Pinagpalayan” which means “planted with rice”, for it was once a vast area planted with rice. Rice farming is an important source of livelihood of the municipality, up to this day. Since then, the place grew and became a town. However, during the entire 18th century, Pinamalayan was one of the coastal areas frequently attacked by Moro pirates. People were decimated and many fled to the interior for safety.

1800

Pinamalayan is one of the oldest towns in the province of Oriental Mindoro. Its territory once went as far as the old settlements of Sumagui and Anilao which are now part of the municipalities of Bansud and Bongabong, respectively. The towns of Pola and Gloria, now separate municipalities, were also former parts of the old domain. This was then organized as a permanent settlement in 1800's under the leadership of a gobernadorcillo.

APRIL 29, 1904

Under the American government, the towns of Pola and Bongabong were consolidated with Pinamalayan by virtue of Act 1155.

CREATION OF THE MUNICIPALITY

1888

In the year 1888, the territory of Pinamalayan included the settlements of Pola, Sumagui, and Anilao. At that time, the gobernadorcillo was Juan Morente, Jr., who assumed position until 1898 when the uprising against the Spanish government broke out. Morente Jr. joined the revolutionary forces as a captain then Juan Medina replaced him as the town head. When the Spaniards surrendered, Morente Jr. became governor of the province of Mindoro while Cornelio Nable was appointed as the municipal president.

JANUARY 12, 1912

Pola became an independent town. A major political change brought about by the American occupation was that the Municipal Council acted on the selection of a new town site through viva-voce voting in 1914.

1916

The seat of the Municipal Government was officially transferred from barangay Lumambayan to its present site.

1919

Bongabong likewise regained its township status in March 1919 under Act 2824. The American planners made sure that the town is properly laid out according to a planning system that included wide, symmetrical roads with appropriate drainage facilities. It was also during this time that a big plaza was constructed adjacent to the municipal building. These turns of events made Pinamalayan as a model in town planning to all the municipalities in Oriental Mindoro. Moreover, the repeated territorial reorganizations signify the role of Pinamalayan as a major political and economic center in the southern part of Oriental Mindoro way back in the latter years of the Spanish regime up to the American rule. Administrative orders regulating secular activities in the settlements of neighboring towns were once sent from Pinamalayan. Thus, this gives the municipality considerable advantages in terms of trade, infrastructure development, social facilities, and even political accommodations at the onset of the century.

1942

When the Japanese occupied Mindoro in 1942, Dr. Abelardo Bunag, then mayor, joined the underground movement. The Japanese then appointed Carlos Aguilucho as mayor, followed by Manuel Medina. Then, the Americans returned around January 15, 1945.

1964

In 1964, Gloria became an independent town. From 1947 to 1990 under various administrations, Pinamalayan grew steadily to become the progressive town that it is today.

Table HB-1 presents the local chief executives from year 1901 to present. Throughout history, the municipality had 32 municipal mayors.

Profile :Narrative Description:

Poverty reduction is a critical issue that affects many municipalities. In Pinamalayan, poverty remains as far-reaching consequences that negatively impact not only the individuals and families directly affected, but also the wider community and local economy. Since a municipality is a geographic area that is typically governed by a local government, poverty reduction efforts at the municipal level can play a crucial role in addressing this issue.

Poverty reduction initiatives in this municipality involve a range of different strategies and interventions, depending on the local context, resources, and priorities. These initiatives may include programs that provide direct financial assistance to low-income individuals and families like financial assistance. They may also include initiatives aimed at improving access to basic services like healthcare, education, and housing, as well as support for job training and employment opportunities.

Efforts to reduce poverty can also involve measures to improve the overall economic environment, such as investment in local infrastructure and support for small businesses. This can create job opportunities and increase overall economic activity, which can help to lift people out of poverty.

In addition to these practical measures, poverty reduction initiatives also involve efforts to address the underlying social and economic factors that contribute to poverty, such as discrimination, social exclusion, and limited access to resources and opportunities. This can involve working to change attitudes and perceptions around poverty and building social cohesion and inclusion in the community.

Overall, poverty reduction is a complex and multifaceted issue that requires a comprehensive and coordinated response. Addressing the root causes of poverty and implementing a range of different interventions will help make Pinamalayan create a more equitable and prosperous municipality for all Pinamalalenyos.

Municipal economic data can be extremely relevant to poverty reduction planning, as it can provide valuable insights into the economic conditions of a specific area and inform policies and programs that aim to address poverty.

Understanding the underlying causes of poverty provide insights into the underlying causes of poverty in a given area. With the data above, policymakers can investigate whether there are specific industries that are not thriving in that area, or if there are barriers to education or job training that prevent residents from accessing employment opportunities to improve our current unemployment rate.

Overall, municipal economic data can provide valuable insights into the economic conditions of a specific area, helping policymakers to develop targeted policies and programs that aim to reduce poverty and improve the well-being of residents.

In this municipality, the alarming threats of global warming and other socioeconomic issues remain a daunting challenge to Pinamalayan, though one of the progressive municipalities in the province, still experiencing poverty incidence.

Assessment:

The National Government's thrust, programs, and strategies, complementary to the LGU's plans and programs and the direct involvement of Civil Society Organizations and the Budget Sector in program planning and budgeting approach is one of the many strategies in combating the poverty problem. Though poverty requires a comprehensive approach to address its root causes to provide assistance to those in need, this poverty reduction action plan outlines a structured approach to reducing poverty:

1. Assess the current state of poverty:

The first step in developing a poverty reduction action plan is to assess the current state of poverty in the target area. This involves collecting and analyzing data on poverty rates, demographics, and other relevant factors.

2. Identify the root causes of poverty:

Once the current state of poverty has been assessed, the next step is to identify the root causes of poverty in the target area. This may include factors such as lack of education, inadequate access to healthcare, limited job opportunities, and systemic inequality.

3. Set specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound (SMART) goals:

To ensure that the poverty reduction action plan is effective, specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound goals should be set. These goals should be based on the assessment of the current state of poverty and the identified

4. Develop a multi-faceted approach:

Addressing the root causes of poverty requires a multi-faceted approach that addresses a range of factors. This may include implementing education and training programs, improving healthcare access, creating job opportunities, and providing financial assistance to those in need.

5. Engage with community stakeholders:

Engaging with community stakeholders, including individuals and organizations that are impacted by poverty, can help to ensure that the poverty reduction action plan is tailored to the specific needs of the target area.

6. Establish partnerships:

Developing partnerships with government agencies, non-profit organizations, and private businesses can help to ensure that the poverty reduction action plan is adequately resourced and that expertise from a range of sectors is utilized.

7. Secure funding:

Poverty reduction efforts require funding to be successful. Funding may come from a range of sources, including government grants, private donations, and corporate social responsibility programs.

8. Monitor and evaluate progress:

To ensure that the poverty reduction action plan is effective, progress should be regularly monitored and evaluated. This will help to identify areas that require additional attention and provide opportunities to refine the poverty reduction approach over time.

9. Communicate progress and success:

Communicating progress and success can help to build support for poverty reduction efforts and maintain engagement from stakeholders. This may involve sharing data and stories that highlight the positive impact of poverty reduction efforts in the target area.

10. Continuously adapt and improve:

Reducing poverty is an ongoing process, and poverty reduction efforts should be continuously adapted and improved based on the changing needs of the target area and the results of monitoring and evaluation efforts.

Poverty is a persistent problem affecting millions of people worldwide and the people of Pinamalayan. There are several factors that can create a cycle of poverty that is difficult to break without targeted intervention such as unemployment rates, low wages, and a lack of affordable housing, other social issues, including crime, poor health outcomes, and low educational attainment. A comprehensive approach is needed to address poverty using strategies that will help to reduce its impact and create long-term solutions. By implementing the key strategies outlined above and the programs and projects identified through the recommended implementation steps, the municipality can make significant progress toward reducing poverty and improving the lives of its residents.
